

Legacy Supply Chain Fuels Rapid Growth by Exclusively Standardizing on Manhattan SCALE™

August 8, 2023 12:30 PM EDT

ATLANTA--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Aug. 8, 2023-- Manhattan Associates Inc. (NASDAQ: MANH) today announced Legacy Supply Chain, a high-growth North American third-party logistics (3PL) provider, has selected Manhattan SCALE™ as the single platform for all company-managed warehouse management system (WMS) environments, which includes its growing multi-tenant ecommerce fulfillment network as well as multiple dedicated contract distribution operations. By standardizing operations on SCALE, Legacy can improve warehouse performance and introduce efficiency gains while also streamlining customer onboarding as its business grows rapidly. Consolidating its warehouse management systems is a strategic move to elevate the company's supply chain execution capability and ability to increase market share.

Legacy Supply Chain, a long-standing Manhattan SCALE customer, has inherited other WMS solutions through acquisitions. The company recently made the decision to standardize on SCALE across all Legacy-owned and managed warehouses to support its growing ecommerce fulfillment business. Manhattan SCALE's outstanding performance, rapid deployment and industry-leading position, coupled with Legacy's well-developed internal resourcing to implement the platform, solidified Manhattan as the optimal choice to unify Legacy's distribution operations, providing enterprise-wide visibility and control.

Manhattan SCALE empowers customers with broad capabilities to streamline inventory management, order processing and shipment execution. With its ideal blend of features, functions and technology, SCALE is particularly well-suited for the dynamic demands of 3PL businesses. The solution's rapid deployment, ease of use and low training requirements give Legacy a foundational platform for supporting various customer models and improving internal operations.

"Leveraging the Tier 1 distribution and fulfillment capabilities of Manhattan SCALE is core to our growth strategy," said Mike Glodziak, president and CEO of Legacy Supply Chain. "Our successful partnership with Manhattan allows Legacy to continually drive new levels of value and performance for customers while creating a better, more efficient operational environment for our employees."

"Legacy required the industry's most powerful supply chain execution solution to serve the needs of its extended omnichannel businesses," said Bob Howell, executive vice president of Americas for Manhattan Associates. "We are delighted to grow our partnership to deliver deeper supply chain value and services to their customers."
